PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

LANDS' END INC, USA

1995 to 2010

$2 billion global multi-channel retailer in men's, women's and children's clothing, footwear, home and corporate sales. Launched UK clothing catalogue business in 1993, followed by Germany and Japan three years later. Launched France and Austria in 2009. Acquired by Sears in 2003, leading to massive retail expansion in the US.

SENIOR GRAPHIC DESIGNER - PRINT (Based in the UK at European HQ)

2002 to 2010

Responsible for the design of UK and German catalogue page layout for 26+ direct marketing retail catalogues per annum. Liaise with production department to project manage and design UK and German marketing collateral, corporate retail POS and local advertising within Brand Guidelines. Manage small team of Artworkers and a Junior Designer. Support Design Manager in scheduling, photography budget control, presentations, Student internee mentor. Train and supervise design team in Epson proofing.

- 20% increased workload in 2008 by taking sole responsibility for the design of the largest selling section (Outerwear) in the UK and German Lands' End catalogues. Successfully pre-planned all new photography prior to start of the season to ensure all requirements covered. Constantly monitored own workloads to maximise pick-up spread options and divert design time into high earning spreads. In 2009 generated £5 million net sales in UK and in excess of €16 million in Germany thereby ensuring European EBITDA goal exceeded.
- Assumed leadership of Artworkers, when the department was amalgamated into Creative in 2007. Developed systems to fully integrate Artworkers role into existing Creative structure. Restructured Artworker role to ensure progression opportunities. Initiated weekly touchbase with team to be aware of potential challenges to workloads and deadlines. Ultimately increased confidence and professionalism of the Artworking department to status of Highly Effective in company goal review scheme.
- Launched process to co-ordinate print projects through the department. Helped restructure design team by recruiting a Junior Print and Web Designer. Co-ordinated flow of projects from Production department through Design Team, and Artworkers. 2008 onwards, managed a 30% increase in print projects with no missed deadlines or impact on core catalogue.

MIDWEIGHT GRAPHIC DESIGNER - PRINT (Based in the UK at European HQ)

1995 to 2002

Responsible for the design of Women's wear pages in the UK and German catalogue. Art direction on concept covers for the UK and German catalogues. Commissioning illustrations for editorials in the catalogue. Proofing cromalins/Epsoms pre print. Designing ad hoc projects for various departments within the company. Worked with UK and German copywriters to brainstorm concepts for the catalogue. Mentored Junior Designer.

- Under the guidance of the Creative Director worked to redesign the catalogue to appeal to a more affluent European customer. Made pages cleaner and easier to shop. First year sales increased by 30% in the UK and 12% in Germany.
- Challenged to bring catalogue schedule forward by 6 weeks. Junior Designer and I managed to achieve this aim with substantially increased workloads with no missed deadlines, and resulted in a 10% photography cost saving by aligning with US schedule.
- One of 3 designers to ensure successful launch of the German catalogue in September 1996.
- Delivered concept front covers for UK catalogue. Brainstormed ideas, project managed and art directed shoots.
